

Jane Goodall

Jane Goodall is the world's foremost authority on chimpanzees. She has been the Scientific Director of the Gombe Stream Research Center since 1967. In 1984, Jane Goodall received the J. Paul Getty Wildlife Conservation Prize for "helping millions of people understand the importance of wildlife conservation to life on this planet." Dr. Goodall has expanded her global outreach with the founding of the Jane Goodall Institution based in Ridgefield, Connecticut. She continues her mission in many inventive ways, including the Chimpanzee Guardian Project.
